THE

South-Carolina GAZETTE.

January 27, 1752. [NUMB. 922.]

☞ No ADVERTISEMENTS that come later than Friday Morning will be taken in for that Week's Paper, as I design to publish this Gazette, for the future, every Saturday.

By Capt. Thompſon, from Poole, who arrived here laſt Saturday, we have the following Advices.

MADRID, (Capital of Spain) November 9.

IT is aſſured, that the negociation with which Mr. Keene is charged, is far advanced, and is likely to be brought to an happy iſſue. The court, it is ſaid, has already conſented to a free navigation of Engliſh ſhips, provided they do not paſs the limits agreed upon: But one of the principal difficulties which retards the concluſion of this negociation, is the ſecurity which the court requires, that theſe ſhips ſhall not, directly or indirectly, carry on a contraband commerce. As to the cutting of the wood in the bay of Campeachy, the court requires, that the Engliſh ſhall be limited to certain places. They write from Cadiz, that there are lately ſailed from that port ſeveral tranſports, having on board a great number of braſs cannon, as well as a large quantity of ammunition and proviſions, for our colonies in America. There are likewiſe embarked on board theſe ſhips 2000 vagabonds, and people without any habitation or way of livelihood.

Breſt, (one of the beſt Sea-ports of France) Nov. 9. The new ſquadron lately fitted out here, ſailed the 23d of laſt month, with a fair wind. It is commanded by commodore de Salvert, commiſſary-general of the artillery of the marine at this port; and he is ordered not to open his inſtructions 'till he arrives at a certain latitude.

London, Nov. 19. Lieutenant general George Churchill, is appointed governor of Gibraltar, in the room of lieutenant-general Bland.

Private letters from the Hague inform us, that as ſoon as his late ſerene highneſs the prince ſtadtholder had breathed his laſt, count William Bentinck went immediately into his coach, and drove to the reſpective lodgings of the deputies, whom he informed of the melancholy event, and convinced them of the neceſſity of aſſembling the ſtates of Holland, which through his indefatigable diligence met before it was day, and came immediately to a reſolution, of ſending a deputation to comfort the princeſs royal, and to compliment the young prince on his acceſſion to the ſtadtholderſhip, which ſtep thus happily taken, the reſt of the provinces readily followed the example.

London, Nov. 21. We hear, that a gentleman poſſeſſed of a large fortune in ready money, lately returned from Italy thro' France, is determined to plant mulberry trees in Hampſhire; and makes no doubt but that he ſhall be able to breed ſilk-worms, and manage them at leaſt as well as they do at preſent in ſeveral parts of Germany.

On monday morning, about 6 o'clock, a comet appeared, to the great admiration of the curious in aſtronomical obſervations; the ſaid comet appeared viſible above a quarter of an hour.

We hear, by a letter from Ireland, that 9 of the biſhops are in a bad ſtate of health.

On thurſday laſt the wife of James Piercy, an induſtrious labouring man at Old Brentford, was brought to bed of three boys, who are chriſtened by the names of Matthew, Mark, and Luke, and are likely to live. It is remarkable that that day 11 months, the above woman had 3 boys and 1 girl at a birth.

Yeſterday the hon. houſe of commons ordered Mr. Alex. Murray into cuſtody a ſecond time.

There is a report, that ſome of the wealthy companies in the city will contribute a conſiderable ſum each, towards eſtabliſhing a general fund for rewarding and encouraging all diſcoveries and improvements that may be hereafter made in Arts, Manufactures and Commerce; that ſuch as are now but indifferently perform'd, may be ſpeedily carried to the higheſt degree of perfection; and that ſuch as of late years may have declined from their former excellence, may be excited to recover their reputation.

London, Nov. 23. We hear, that a perſon of character is ſpeedily expected from the Weſt-Indies, who will be able to give the public a full account from his own knowledge, of the preſent ſituation of things, in thoſe parts; and more eſpecially as to the progreſs of the French in the Neutral Iſlands, the number of families ſettled in each of them, the nature of their ſoil and produce.

Our correſpondent at Paris informs us, that engineers have been ſent to the port of Honfleur, to ſee what advantage can be taken of an accident produced by the late ſtormy weather, which has entirely removed thoſe mud banks that rendered the entrance into that fine haven ſo difficult and dangerous, as the preſervation of it, in its preſent condition, is looked upon as a point of great importance.

His Majeſty, out of his parental affection, viſits his Royal Highneſs ſeveral times a day.
